The form consists of a large rectangular frame decorated with a string of lights. The string of lights is drawn with a thick black line, forming a border around the page. The lights are represented by small circles connected by a wavy line. In the center of the page, there is a vertical decorative element that looks like a stylized tree trunk or a central column. This column is filled with intricate black and white patterns, including swirls, triangles, and floral motifs. The column is flanked by two horizontal decorative elements that look like branches or arms, also filled with similar patterns. The overall design is whimsical and artistic.

There are two sets of horizontal lines for writing, one on the left side of the page and one on the right side of the page. Each set consists of ten lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page, leaving a margin on the right side.
