Tigger was bouncing in the wood.

He saw Pooh and Rabbit
and Eeyore and Piglet and Roo. They were on the bridge.

“What are you doing?”
asked Tigger.
“We are playing Pooh Sticks,” said Piglet. “Look!”

“One, two, three... go!”
said Rabbit.

They all threw their sticks
into the water.

Eeyore's stick came under the bridge first. He won the game.

“Can I play Pooh Sticks, too?” asked Tigger.
“Yes,” said Pooh.

Tigger bounced into the wood to get some sticks.

Tigger bounced back to the bridge.

“Tiggers love to play Pooh Sticks,” he said.

“One, two, three... go!”
said Rabbit.

They all threw their sticks into the water.

13

“Did I win?” asked Tigger.
“No,” said Eeyore. “I won.”

“Let’s play again,”
said Tigger.

So they played again.
Eeyore's stick came under the bridge first.

Tigger was cross.
“Let’s play again,”
he said.

So they played again.
And Eeyore won that
game, too.

Eeyore won the next
game, and the next game,
and the game after that.

Tigger was now very cross.

He stamped his foot.
“Let’s play again,” he said.

So they played again.
And Eeyore won that
game, too.

Tigger was now very, very cross. He threw down his sticks.

“Tiggers don’t like Pooh Sticks!” he said.

Tigger stamped off into the wood. He was so cross he had no bounce at all.

Eeyore went after Tigger.
“You can have my stick,”
said Eeyore. “See if you can win with that.”

Tigger went back to the bridge. This time he threw Eeyore's stick.

And this time Tigger won.
He was so happy he began to bounce again.

“Tiggers like Pooh Sticks!”
said Tigger. “But they like Eeyore best of all!”

Read it yourself is a series of graded readers designed to give young children a confident and successful start to reading.

Level 1 is suitable for children who are making their first attempts at reading. The stories are told in a very simple way using a small number of frequently repeated words. The sentences on each page are closely supported by pictures to help with reading, and to offer lively details to talk about.

About this book

The pictures in this book are designed to encourage children to talk about the story. After a discussion of the pictures, children can listen to an adult read the story or attempt to read it themselves. Unknown words can be worked out by looking at the beginning letter (what sound does this letter make?), and deciding which word would make sense.

Beginner readers need plenty of encouragement.

Read it yourself level 1

- Essential vocabulary for early reading
- Simple sentences
- Large clear type
- Lively illustrations
- Close match between pictures and words
