Handwriting practice section for the Urdu letter 'آ'. It consists of six rows of dashed lines on a grid. Each row contains ten dashed 'آ' characters for tracing. A legend on the right shows the correct stroke order for writing 'آ': a horizontal line from left to right, followed by a vertical line from top to bottom, and a final horizontal line from left to right. The legend also includes a small 'آ' character with a dot above it.

A handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'i'. It consists of ten rows of three horizontal lines (top, middle, and bottom) each. Each row contains eight lowercase 'i's. The first seven rows show the letter with a dashed stroke order guide: a dot on the middle line, a dashed vertical line down to the bottom line, and a dashed curved line starting from the top of the vertical line, arching over the middle line, and ending at the top of the vertical line. The eighth row shows the letter with a solid stroke order guide. The ninth row shows the letter with a solid dot on the middle line and a solid vertical line down to the bottom line. The tenth row shows the letter with a solid dot on the middle line and a solid vertical line down to the bottom line, but without the top curve.
