- 2 At the moment she's reading a book, but she usually reads the newspaper.

16.2

I like my room. It's small but there are a lot of things in it.

There's a bed, of course. And there's a wardrobe with my clothes in. There aren't any chairs and there isn't a desk, but there's a small table next to my bed.

On the table, there's a clock (to wake me up in the morning). And there's another clock on the wall – so there are two clocks in my room. On the wall, there's also a mirror and some pictures of footballers. I love football!

What else is there in my room? There's a cupboard and in it there are books and toys. But there isn't a computer or a television – my parents say no to that!

16.3

In my room there's a bed, and there's a wardrobe for my clothes. There aren't any chairs and there isn't a desk, but there's a small table. There are two clocks (on the table and on the wall). On the wall there's a mirror and there are some pictures.

Oxford Grammar for Schools is a 7-level series that helps you understand and practise grammar, supporting and extending what you learn in your coursebook.

Understand the grammar

- Look at the 'Can do' statements to find out what you will learn
- See grammar in action with pictures and examples

Activate your language skills

- Learn by listening – not only by reading
- Practise communicating with the correct pronunciation
- Use the grammar you've learned in 'real-life' writing activities
- Songs (in levels 1–3) and games use the grammar and make it easier to remember

Make progress

- Choose from three levels of exercises
- Try the revision unit activities that practise more than one grammar topic
- Recycle and build on grammar you learned in other levels
- Rate your progress with the end-of-unit self-evaluation boxes
- Prepare for exams with exam-style questions

Tests by Ingrid Wisniewska

- One test for each unit of the Student's Book
- End-of-level tests
- Exam-style questions

Oxford Grammar for Schools covers the grammar for these exams:

1	YLE Starters	A1
2	YLE Movers	A1–A2
3	YLE Flyers	A2
4	PET for Schools	A2–B1
5	PET for Schools	B1
6	FCE for Schools	B1–B2
7	FCE for Schools	B2

Oxford making  digital sense

The book with DVD-ROM gives you the opportunity to practise at home (complete book, audio, and extra interactive exercises).
