- Interviewer: And what about your plans for the future? What would you like to do when you are older?
- Sarah: I'd really like to be a doctor.
- Interviewer: Good luck with that, Sarah. So, now we can...

1.7

- Henry: How are you, Paul?
- Paul: I've got an exam next week, so I'm a bit nervous.
- Henry: You aren't normally nervous.
- Paul: I know, but I want to become a doctor, so the exam is very important.
- Henry: Really?
- Paul: Yes, it's the most important subject for doctors.
- Henry: So, are you studying hard?
- Paul: Yes. I'm doing some revision at the moment. But I've got a problem. My cousins from Australia are going to be here for a week, and I want to spend some time with them.
- Henry: When do they arrive?
- Paul: On the seventh. The day before the exam. What do you think? Are exams more important than families?
- Henry: That's difficult. You need to talk to your parents.

Gemma: Yes. My brother plays the piano, and I play the flute.

Interviewer: Does anyone do anything else?

Gemma: My mum goes to dance classes.

Interviewer: John, does anyone in your family do sport?

John: Yes. Everyone does sport. I play football, my sister and my dad play tennis, and my mum goes swimming.

Interviewer: Is there anywhere to do sport near your house?

John: Yes. There's a sports centre in the town.

Interviewer: Does anyone in your family play a musical instrument?

John: No. No one in my family plays a musical instrument.

Interviewer: Does anyone do anything else?

John: My sister likes painting. My dad goes fishing.

May: Hi, Jill. How was your holiday? Did you go anywhere nice?

Jill: Yes, we went to Fethiye in Turkey.

May: How was it?

Jill: Everything was perfect. The weather was brilliant, the people were friendly and the hotel was nice.

May: Did you do anything interesting?

Jill: At the start of the week, we were really tired, so we did nothing. We just sat by the pool. Then someone told us that we could hire a boat, so we went sailing every day.

May: That sounds lovely. And what was the food like?

Jill: It was great. My favourite was something called Piliç Dolma. You make it with chicken and spices. It was delicious.

May: So did everyone enjoy the holiday?

Jill: Yes. We all loved it. But I don't think we'll go back. My parents prefer to go somewhere different every year.

B: No. Not much.

7 They didn't eat much cake.

8 There aren't many trees in this park.

9 Did your teacher give you much advice about the exam?

10 I can't see many boats on the sea.

Interviewer: Do you have much breakfast?

Katy: No, not much. I normally have a little orange juice and a little toast.

Interviewer: And for other meals, do you eat much meat?

Katy: I don't eat much meat – just a little chicken. But I love fish so I eat a lot of that.

Interviewer: What do you prefer: pasta, rice or potatoes?

Katy: Pasta is my favourite food. I eat a lot of pasta. I also eat a little rice, but I don't eat many potatoes. I'm not really keen on them.

Interviewer: Do you eat many snacks in between meals?

Katy: I sometimes have a few biscuits or a little fruit. I try not to eat much between meals.

Interviewer: How about drinks? Do you drink much coffee, tea, fizzy drinks or water?

Katy: I drink a lot of water, because they say it's very good for you. I don't drink any tea or coffee, and I don't drink many fizzy drinks – only on special occasions when we go out.

3.3

I live in a big city and I worry about the environment. There's not enough clean air and there's too much pollution. That's partly because of traffic – there are too many cars and lorries but there aren't enough bicycles. Walking or cycling is better than driving, because you don't use petrol. The other reason for pollution is that there aren't enough trees in the city. Trees produce oxygen and make the air cleaner. Another problem is that people use too much electricity. We have too many televisions and computers and other electrical devices. To produce electricity we normally burn gas or coal and that creates carbon dioxide which is bad for the environment. At the moment, we don't use enough solar power. Solar power produces clean electricity.

- Kim Hi, Jane. How are you?
Jane I'm fine. What are you doing?
Kim I'm going to Emily's house.
Jane Emily? But she's still at school.
Kim Are you sure? I spoke to her this morning and she agreed to meet me at four o'clock at her house.
Jane Well, I saw her at school. She was with Beth. They were talking to Mr Salmon.
Kim Who's he? I don't know him.
Jane He's the music teacher. Beth and Emily play in the orchestra. I think he was talking to them about the music concert.
Kim OK. So, Emily isn't at her house now. What should I do?
Jane Come to my house. We can do our homework together.
Kim Do you understand it?
Jane Yes.
Kim I don't. Maybe you can help me!

Man: Great.
Waiter: Here is your sandwich, sir.
Woman: No, that isn't his. It's mine.
Waiter: Oh, I'm sorry. So is the pasta yours, then, sir?
Man: No, the pasta is my son's. Mine is the burger.
Waiter: Are you sure yours is the burger?
Man: Yes, of course, I am.
Waiter: Here are you then. So that means the soup must be for the little girl.
Woman: Yes, that's hers. Thank you.
Waiter: I've also got some chips and some salad. Are the chips for the children?
Woman: No, they aren't. The chips are mine. Theirs is the salad.
Waiter: OK. And now for the drinks. Cola for the boy.
Man: No. The cola's mine.
Waiter: Ah, then the orange juice is his.
Woman: No, no, no. His is the water.
Waiter: So sorry. There you are. I think the coffee must be yours, madam.
Woman: Correct.
Waiter: So the orange juice is hers.
Both: Congratulations!

Mum: I'm going to make some sandwiches for a picnic. Can you help me?
Toby: Yes, of course.
Mum: So what would you like in yours?
Toby: Have we got any chicken?
Mum: Yes, just a little.
Toby: Can I have some mayonnaise with it?
Mum: Yes, there's some in the fridge. And do you want some salad?
Toby: No thanks. But a few tomatoes would be nice.
Mum: OK. There you are.
Toby: So, who's next? How about you?
Mum: I'd like a cheese sandwich.
Toby: With anything else?
Mum: With salad please.
Toby: OK. And any mayonnaise?
Mum: No, thanks. No mayonnaise for me.
Toby: Fine. That's done.
Mum: So now we need to make one for your sister. What would she like?
Toby: Chicken, probably.
Mum: There isn't any chicken left. We put it in your sandwich.
Toby: Ah. Do you think she'd like some cheese?
Mum: Actually, she likes tuna and mayonnaise, and there's some tuna in the fridge.
Toby: OK. I've got the tuna and here's the mayonnaise. Ooops.
Mum: Oh Toby! That's too much.
Toby: I'm sure she likes mayonnaise. And she can have some salad too. All done.
Mum: Thank you, Toby.
Toby: You're welcome.

Daisy: Do you share a bedroom?
Anna: Yes, I do. I share with my sister.
Daisy: Do you mind sharing?
Anna: There's one big problem. We don't go to the same school. So my sister gets up at half past six and catches a bus at quarter past seven. That wakes me up, but I don't get up until half past seven. I walk to school and it only takes ten minutes.
Daisy: Are there any other problems?
Anna: Well, my sister doesn't tidy the room. She leaves her clothes on the floor. That makes me angry.
Daisy: Does she do anything else annoying?

Anna: She sometimes watches loud music videos on her laptop. I don't like that.
Daisy: Do you do anything annoying?
Anna: Me? No. I'm perfect.

Peter: Hi, Jack. It's Peter.
Jack: Hey. Where are you?
Peter: I'm sitting on a train with my family.
Jack: Where are you going?
Peter: We're travelling to Scotland to visit my cousins.
Jack: That sounds exciting.
Peter: Actually, I'm not enjoying the journey. The air-conditioning isn't working, so it's really hot in here at the moment.
Jack: So what are you doing? Are you playing games on your phone?
Peter: No, I'm not. I'm revising for the maths test.
Jack: Bad luck. So what is everyone else doing?
Peter: My sister's listening to music and my parents are reading. Actually, no, they aren't reading now; they're sleeping.
Jack: I've got to go now. Enjoy Scotland. I hope the sun shines.
Peter: Thanks, but right now, I'm looking forward to some cold weather!

6.4

A: Tell me about this picture.
B: These are my friends: Bill, Tony, Harry and Peter. They all live in different parts of the world. We got together last summer for a weekend.
A: So who's this?
B: The one who's playing football?
A: Yes, that's right.
B: That's Bill.
A: What does Bill do?
B: He cooks in a restaurant. He's a chef. He normally works in London but at the moment he's working in a restaurant in New York.
A: And who's this person?
B: The one who's repairing the car? That's Tony.
A: So what job does Tony do?
B: Tony takes photos. He's a photographer. He lives in Paris but at the moment he's working in Sydney.
A: That sounds nice. So, who is this? The person who's cooking food.
B: That's Harry.
A: And what does Harry do?
B: Harry is a mechanic. He repairs cars. He comes from Oxford but at the moment he's working for a company in Beijing in China.
A: So there's only one more person. The one who's taking a photo.
B: Yes, that's Peter.
A: What job does Peter do?
B: Peter plays football. He's a professional footballer. He normally plays for a team in Manchester, but this year he's playing in Los Angeles.
A: You've certainly got an exciting group of friends!

In the afternoon, we had a PE lesson but it rained and I got very wet. Normally I love PE but I didn't enjoy it yesterday.

I stayed at school for an extra hour because of my detention. Then I waited at the bus stop for the bus but it didn't come. I walked home.

My parents were worried because I was late. But my mum made a nice dinner. I felt much better after that!

7.4

On Saturday, I woke up at 8 o'clock. I decided to go shopping, so I took the train to the town centre. First I went to a clothes shop and bought some jeans. Outside the clothes shop, I met Sally and we decided to go to a café. At the café, she had a cup of coffee and I ate a sandwich. Then I took the train and got home at half past five. I had a really nice day.

7.5

What are the milestones in my life? Well, I was born on 7 May 2000. I started primary school in 2005. I think I learnt to read the next year, in 2006. I first went to the cinema in 2007. That was really exciting. I started language lessons five years ago; I enjoy learning a language but it takes a long time. I started secondary school in 2012. I met my best friend three years ago; he's in my class at school. Then I got a mobile phone last year. That was brilliant.

7.6

Ben: Did you have a good weekend?

Jack: No. Not really.

Ben: Why not?

Jack: Well, Robert and I decided to go cycling. But we got lost.

Ben: How did that happen?

Jack: Well, we didn't have a map. Robert forgot to bring it. And then it started to rain.

Ben: Did you get really wet?

Jack: Yes, especially Robert. He didn't have a coat. But that wasn't the worst thing. The chain on my bicycle broke.

Ben: Oh no.

Jack: We didn't know what to do. My phone didn't work because we couldn't get a signal. We looked for a car, but there weren't any cars on the road.

Ben: So what did you do?

Jack: We walked for an hour. In the end, we came to a village and phoned my dad. He drove to meet us in the car. He wasn't happy!

Interviewer: There was an earthquake at 7.30 in the morning in New Zealand yesterday. I spoke to some young people about what they were doing at that exact moment. So, what were you doing, Daisy, at 7.30 yesterday morning?

Daisy: I was having my breakfast and listening to the radio.

Interviewer: How about you, Fred? What were you doing?

Fred: I was sitting at my desk, doing my homework.

Interviewer: And you, Kim?

Kim: I was walking to school with May.

May: Yeah, we were just talking about our homework.

Interviewer: Were you walking to school, Helen?

Helen: No, I wasn't. I was in bed, sleeping. I was dreaming about the sea. I thought I was moving in a boat!

Interviewer: And what were you doing, Ben?

Ben: I was with my friend Alex at a sports club. We were playing basketball – and we were winning too!

8.2

► What were you doing at half past seven?

1 It was raining when I left home.

2 Jill got up and had breakfast.

3 My racket broke when I was playing tennis.

4 Where were you going when I saw your car yesterday?

5 They wanted to go out last night.

6 They did their homework and then they went shopping.

7 Did she like your new shoes?

8 A: Where were you yesterday afternoon?

B: I was visiting my grandparents.

9 The film finished at four o'clock.

10 Mary didn't know the answer when the teacher asked her the question.

8.3

- Emma: Did your cousins visit you last weekend?
Mary: Yes, they did. But things started badly.
Emma: Why was that?
Mary: Well, they arrived at ten in the morning, but we were expecting them at two in the afternoon. So we weren't ready.
Emma: How embarrassing!
Mary: Yes. I was doing my homework when the doorbell rang. I opened the door and there were my cousins, my aunt and my uncle.
Emma: What did you do?
Mary: My parents were out. My dad was working, so I couldn't phone him. I called my mum but she was driving to the supermarket so she couldn't answer.
Emma: What about your brother?
Mary: My brother was playing football at the park, so he wasn't there either.
Emma: So what happened?
Mary: Well, it was embarrassing because the house was a mess. So my aunt and uncle helped me clean and tidy the house. My aunt cleaned the kitchen and my uncle did the washing-up. While I was tidying the living room and the dining room my cousins made the beds.
Emma: Were your aunt and uncle annoyed?
Mary: Luckily, they thought it was quite funny. When my parents got home, we all laughed about it.

- Interviewer: Today I'm talking to Lucy Pemberton. She's 16 years old and she loves sailing. But the most amazing thing is that she sails all over the world on her own. So, Lucy, tell us about the journeys you've made.
- Lucy: I've sailed across the Atlantic and the Pacific. I've sailed in the Indian Ocean. I've sailed to Australia, South Africa, South America and the Caribbean. In fact, I've sailed all around the world.
- Interviewer: That's amazing. Are you the youngest person who has sailed around the world alone?
- Lucy: I think so. But I haven't won any prizes because I'm too young. They say they don't want young people to try to sail alone because it's too dangerous.

- Interviewer: Do you think sailing is dangerous? Have you had any bad experiences?
- Lucy: It's dangerous sometimes. I've sailed through storms. They are definitely scary. But I'm a good sailor.
- Interviewer: So how long have you spent on the boat?
- Lucy: In the last two years, I've spent 400 days on the boat.
- Interviewer: 400 days! So what about school?
- Lucy: I haven't had time to go to school this year. But I've done school work and I've read lots of books.
- Interviewer: Have you ever earned any money from sailing?
- Lucy: No, I haven't. But that's OK. I sail because I love sailing. I don't do it for money.
- Interviewer: Do you have any more ambitions?
- Lucy: Well, I've never done a parachute jump. I'd definitely like to do that.

- Sue: How is the preparation for the concert going? Have you agreed a date yet?
- John: Yes, the date is the 25th and we've already sent letters to parents.
- Sue: Oh right. I didn't realize. Have you had auditions yet?
- John: Yes, we did the auditions last week but we haven't chosen the musicians yet. We're going to do that tomorrow.
- Sue: So what else do you have to do?
- John: Well, we haven't written the programmes yet. We can't do that until we've chosen the performers.
- Sue: What about refreshments? Are you going to provide food and drink?
- John: Yes, we are. In fact, I've just been to the supermarket and bought lots of bottles of water, lemonade and cola.
- Sue: And food?
- John: I think we'll make cakes. But obviously we haven't made them yet.
- Sue: I could make cakes. Would you like me to help?

- Sandra: For thirty years.
- Interviewer: And in that time, you've designed museums, sports stadiums, offices and schools. Do you have a favourite building out of all of those?
- Sandra: Probably the Eldon School.
- Interviewer: Tell me more about that.
- Sandra: Well, we started it six years ago. It was a school in a poor part of London and we built a completely new school. It was a lot of work but it opened two years ago. The students love it.
- Interviewer: Not only the students. You won a prize for the design.
- Sandra: Yes, that's right. I won the Brown Prize last year.
- Interviewer: In fact, you've won several prizes, I think.
- Sandra: Yes, I've been very lucky. Probably the most important was the Congress Prize in America. That was eight years ago.
- Interviewer: So, did you live in America?
- Sandra: Yes, I lived there for ten years. I taught at a university, as well as running my business. But then I left and moved to London.
- Interviewer: And have you been in London ever since?
- Sandra: Yes, I've been here for seven years now.
- Interviewer: And are you working on any new projects?
- Sandra: Yes, we're building a new swimming centre. We started in July this year. It will be the biggest in Britain. I'm very excited.
- Interviewer: Good luck with that, Sandra.

- Paul: Ah. There was a problem. I got the vacuum cleaner out and tried to turn it on. But it didn't work.
- Mum: Oh. That's a shame. So have you done the shopping?
- Paul: Well, I went to the supermarket in the morning, but I forgot my wallet, so I couldn't actually buy anything.
- Mum: Oh, Paul! What about your homework? Have you finished that yet?
- Paul: No, I'm sorry. I haven't.
- Mum: Why not?
- Paul: Well, I lent my maths book to Tom yesterday. So when I looked in my bag this morning, the book wasn't there.
- Mum: I can't believe it. So what have you done today?
- Paul: I've watched TV.
- Mum: At least you haven't broken the TV yet!

In 1860, Robert Burke and William Wills started an expedition to travel across Australia from south to north. No white man had ever done this before, and one year earlier the government had offered a prize to the first people to do it.

Burke and Wills organized a group of 19 men and set off in August. Three months later, they arrived at Cooper Creek. Then, Burke, Wills and five other men continued their journey to the north coast. The rest of the men established a camp at Cooper Creek and waited for them to return.

By the time they reached the north coast in February 1861, Burke and Wills had travelled 2,000 miles across two deserts. But the journey had taken 60 days instead of 45 days and, as a result, they had already eaten most of their food.

The return journey was terrible. They were hungry and tired and the desert was incredibly hot. When they finally arrived back at Cooper Creek on the 21st of April, the other men had left. Burke and Wills had asked them to wait for 13 weeks and in fact, they had waited for 18 weeks. In the end, they had abandoned the camp only nine hours before Burke and Wills returned.

Burke and Wills didn't have the strength to travel any further and both men died in June 1861.

Grandfather: How are you, Ed? Are you excited about your birthday on Saturday?

Ed: Yes. I'm really excited. I'm going to see all my friends.

Grandfather: What are you going to do? Are you going to play football?

Ed: No, we're not. We're going to go karting.

Grandfather: That does sound exciting. How many friends are going to come?

Ed: Eight.

Grandfather: Are you going to go somewhere afterwards?

Ed: Yes. We're going to go to a café in town.

Grandfather: Are you going to have lunch there?

Ed: No. We're just going to have coffee and cakes.

Grandfather: Are you going to do anything else on Saturday?

Ed: Well, mum's going to cook chicken and rice – that's my favourite.

Grandfather: And is she going to make a cake?

Ed: No, she isn't. She says she's going to buy some biscuits. And then we're all going to watch a DVD together in the evening.

Grandfather: It sounds like the perfect weekend. But I expect you'll have to do some homework.

Ed: Actually, I'm not going to do any homework. I've already done it all.

Grandfather: That was very clever!

12.3

Dad: It's a beautiful day today. Shall we go for a walk in the mountains?

Toby: That's a great idea. What do I need?

Dad: You'll need your boots, of course.

Toby: OK. I'll find them. But I think they may be dirty.

Dad: Well, you'll have to clean them quickly.

Toby: OK, I'll do that.

Dad: I'll get the rucksacks – and I'll take waterproof jackets, too. It probably won't rain, but you never know in the mountains.

Toby: Will we need some food?

Dad: Yes, we will.

Toby: OK. I'll make some sandwiches now.

Dad: Good, and I'll buy some chocolate at the shop on the way.

Toby: How about water? It's hot today.

Dad: You're right. I'll take two big bottles. And don't forget your hat or you'll get sunburnt! OK. Will you be ready in 15 minutes?

Toby: I'll try!

12.4

Amy: Hi, Yasmin. It's Amy.

Yasmin: Hi. How are you?

Amy: I'm fine. I wondered if you'd like to come to my house this weekend.

Yasmin: I'd love to come! When is a good time, Amy?

Amy: How about Saturday afternoon?

Yasmin: Oh, Saturday afternoon's not possible. I'm going to the dentist. I'm free on Sunday afternoon. Is that OK for you, Amy?

Amy: Sorry, Yasmin. I'm having lunch with my grandparents on Sunday. We'll be there until at least five o'clock. Maybe in the evening on Sunday?

Yasmin: I can't do that, I'm afraid. I'm revising my history. I've got an exam on Monday morning.

Amy: So how about Saturday morning? I'm having a music lesson at 9 o'clock. But I'll be free from 10.30.

Yasmin: That's good. I'm not doing anything at 10.30. You can come to my house then and we can listen to music.

Amy: OK, Yasmin. I'll see you then.

12.5

Mum: I'm getting things ready for our picnic.

Robert: A picnic?

Mum: Yes. I told you about it last week. We're going to the lake. Jason and his family are going to meet us there.

Robert: OK. I'll get my swimming shorts, so I can swim in the lake, and I'll look for a ball, so we can play football.

Mum: Great.

Robert: What food are we going to take?

Mum: I've made some sandwiches and I've bought some crisps.

Robert: Have you made a cake?

Mum: No. I didn't have time, I'm afraid.

Robert: Shall I go to the shop and buy some cakes?

Mum: Will you get some lemonade too? Here. I'll give you some money.

Robert: Thanks. Oh, Mum, have you looked outside?

Mum: Why?

Robert: Look at those dark clouds. It's going to rain.

Mum: Don't worry. The rain probably won't last long. Are you going to the shop?

Robert: Yes, I'm going to buy those cakes. Then I won't mind if it rains!

Revision 2 Units 6–12

- B: Yes. Once. A long time ago.

R2.2

Interviewer: Hello. What's your name?

Jenny: Jenny Champion.

Interviewer: Where are you from, Jenny?

Jenny: Well, I was born in Australia and lived there for ten years. But I've lived in England for eight years now.

Interviewer: What are you doing at the moment?

Jenny: Well, I've just finished school and next year I'm going to university. But at the moment, I'm working in a shop, so I can earn some money.

Interviewer: What are you going to study at university?

Jenny: Computer science. I did physics, maths and chemistry at school. But I really love computing. I hope I'll get a job as a computer programmer when I'm older.

Interviewer: What about your job in the shop? What do you do?

Jenny: It's a technology shop, so I tell people about computers, TVs and cameras. It's very interesting.

Interviewer: Have you done any other jobs?

Jenny: Yes. I've worked in a fast food restaurant. And I've also worked at a children's camp.

Interviewer: So, Jenny, why would you like this job?

R2.3

Dad: Hi, Ryan. How are you?

Ryan: Tired! I'm having a really busy day. Today's the day I'm helping the leaders.

Dad: So what have you done so far?

Ryan: First of all, I got up really early. By the time everyone else got up, I'd cooked twenty eggs for their breakfast.

Dad: Did you have to do the washing up too?

Ryan: Yes. I did that after I'd made sandwiches for lunch.

Dad: Did you have any other jobs in the morning?

Ryan: First I tidied the tents. Then I took all the rubbish to the big bins.

Dad: That's a lot of work. Have you done anything else today?

Ryan: Oh yes. We've just been swimming in the lake. That was brilliant. And we're going to play football in a minute.

Dad: Have you had dinner yet?

Ryan: No not yet. But we ate some cake about an hour ago. So I'm not hungry.

Dad: Do you have to help make dinner?

Ryan: Yes. I'm going to fry some chicken later, when the football match finishes. And in fact, the leaders have already prepared the salad. So there's not much to do. Anyway, I have to go now. Tom has just waved at me. The football match is starting.

Dad: OK. Enjoy the match.

Ryan: Bye!

Amy: Hi, Suzy. How was Jenny's concert last night?

Suzy: I didn't see it.

Amy: But you agreed to go.

Suzy: I know. I really wanted to see it but in the end I couldn't get there.

Amy: What happened?

Suzy: Well, I'd planned to take the bus but then my dad offered to drive me there. It was raining so I was happy to accept his offer.

Amy: So what was the problem?

Suzy: He couldn't start the car. So I went to catch the bus, but there were no more buses.

Amy: Have you spoken to Jenny?

Suzy: Not yet. I'm too embarrassed.

Amy: Well, you must speak to her.

Suzy: But will she be angry?

Amy: No, it'll be OK. You should phone her and promise to go round and see her tonight.

Amy: That's a good idea.

Suzy: Yes. It's important to keep your friends.

13.2

Lucy: Hey, Paul. Have a look at this website. There's a questionnaire about the best and worst things in life.

Paul: What sort of things?

Lucy: Well, the first question is: you're in a shop and there's a really long queue. Do you wait or do you leave the shop without buying anything?

Paul: I think I'd leave the shop. I can't stand waiting in queues. It really annoys me.

Lucy: Actually, I don't mind queues. I normally listen to some music on my headphones.

Paul: So, what's the next one?

Lucy: You put your hand in your pocket and find some money that you had forgotten about.

Paul: Oh yes, I love finding money in my pocket. That's one of the best feelings.

Lucy: I love it too – it just doesn't happen very often.

Paul: OK. Number 3.

Lucy: It's a PE lesson and it's raining. The teacher tells you to play football.

Paul: I hate doing sport in the rain. It's terrible while you're doing it and you feel terrible afterwards.

Lucy: You know what? I actually really like doing sport and getting wet. It's fun.

Paul: You're strange. OK, what's next?

Lucy: You're on a bus and the person next to you is talking on their phone.

Paul: I don't mind that. We all use our phones.

Lucy: Oh, I can't stand sitting next to someone who's talking on their phone. You have to listen to their stupid conversations.

Paul: Are there any more?

Lucy: Yes. This is the last one. You're watching a TV programme and the adverts start. Do you switch to a different channel?

Paul: No. I actually like watching adverts on TV. Some of them are funny.

Lucy: I agree. I love adverts. Sometimes they're better than the programme itself.

Interviewer: So, Mandy. How old are you?

Mandy: I'm 15.

Interviewer: And where do you live?

Mandy: I live in Manchester.

Interviewer: What's your favourite activity?

Mandy: I read books. I love reading.

Interviewer: And what is the best experience you've ever had?

Mandy: Last year I went to India with my family. It was amazing.

Interviewer: And do you have an ambition?

Mandy: Yes. I'm probably going to become a travel writer.

Interviewer: Thank you very much, Mandy. And now we have Sam and Oscar. Hello, and how old are you?

Sam: Hi, I'm 16.

Oscar: So am I. We're twins.

Interviewer: And where are you from?

Sam and Oscar: London.

Interviewer: What's your favourite activity?

Oscar: Playing football.

Interviewer: And you, Sam?

Sam: Yes, definitely. We play in the same team. We love it.

Interviewer: What is the best experience you've ever had?

Sam: Last year we played in a big football competition. Our team won.

Oscar: Yes, that was my best experience, too.

Interviewer: So is your ambition to become footballers?

Oscar: No. We won't become footballers. It's too difficult.

Sam: We're good, but you have to be brilliant.

R3.2

- A: Do you play tennis at all?

B: Yes, at school. But I hate it. It's really boring.
- A: What are you doing today?

B: Not much. Would you like to go and play football?

A: Yes. That's a good idea.

B: OK. Let's go.
- A: Can you play tennis?

B: No, I can't. I like watching it but I've never played it.
- A: Would you like to play football in the park after school today?

B: No, not today. I'm too tired.

A: How about you?

C: No, I can't. I've got a lot of homework.
- A: Do you want to play tennis?

B: Yes, I'd love to. I'll go and get my racket.

A: OK. See you in a minute.
- A: Do you play football?

B: Yes. I love it. How about you?

A: It's my favourite sport!

15 Can, could, be able to 15.1

- A: Could you do maths problems when you were younger?
- B: Yes, I could.
- I couldn't use a computer when I was 14.
 - Can you cook now?
Yes, I can.
 - I could run fifteen hundred metres when I was younger.
 - I can drive a car now.

- 5 Can you do maths problems now?
No, I can't.
- 6 But I can use a computer now.
- 7 I can't run fifteen hundred metres now.
- 8 I couldn't drive a car when I was 14.

15.2

I wish I was young again. There were so many things I could do then. I loved basketball, for example, and could shoot baskets all day. I haven't played basketball for years, sadly. And when I was young I could ice skate, too. But last year I went with my granddaughter and I fell over six times. The other thing I loved when I was small was climbing trees. I could climb really high. Now I'm too scared that I'll fall out.

I suppose there are some things I can do now that I couldn't do when I was younger. I remember when I was twelve, trying to put up a tent. I couldn't do it. It was embarrassing. But I can do it now, without any problem. And, of course, I can cook. Amazingly, when I was twelve I couldn't even cook an egg, but in the end I became a chef and I can cook anything. And best of all, I can now sail a boat. When I was young, I'd never even been on a boat, and I'd certainly not sailed one. Sailing is a fantastic hobby.

15.3

- Could you check my homework, please?
- 1 Can you tidy your room?
- 2 Could you carry my bags, please?
- 3 Can you do the washing-up?
- 4 Can you post these letters?
- 5 Could you open the door, please?

15.4

- Dad: Ben, Katy, we're going out now. We'll be back at about nine tonight.
- Ben/Katy: OK.
- Mum: What are you going to do while we're out?
- Katy: Can I invite Sue, Jess and Anna to our house?
- Mum: No, that's too many. You can have one friend.
- Katy: OK. I'll phone Sue. Can we rent a film?
- Dad: Yes. That's OK.
- Katy: And can we get a pizza as well?
- Mum: No, you can't. That's too expensive. There's some food in the fridge. You can eat that.
- Katy: OK.
- Dad: So, what about you, Ben?
- Ben: Can I cycle into town and meet Tom?
- Dad: You can meet Tom. But you can't cycle. It's icy and that makes it dangerous. You can walk or take the bus.
- Ben: I'll take the bus. And can I have some money to buy a burger?
- Mum: Sorry. I said Katy can't buy a pizza, so I can't give you money for a burger. But you can spend your own money, if you have some.
- Ben: OK. I think I've got some.
- Dad: Right. We're off. Have a good time and be sensible.
- Katy/Ben: We will. Bye!

16 Must, have to, should, needn't

16.1

- Teacher: Good evening, Mr Houseman. Thank you for coming in.
- Mr Houseman: So, how is John getting on?
- Teacher: Not very well, I'm afraid. In fact, I'm very disappointed with him this term.
- Mr Houseman: What's the problem?
- Teacher: Well, first of all. He's often five minutes late for my lessons. That's not acceptable. He must arrive on time every day.
- Mr Houseman: OK.
- Teacher: And when he does arrive, he's often forgotten his book or his pen. He must bring all his books and pens to every lesson. Otherwise, he won't know what we're doing.
- Mr Houseman: Yes, I understand. Is there anything else?
- Teacher: I'm afraid there is. When he's in class, he must listen to the teacher and concentrate on his work. He often talks to his friends. He must stop doing that. It's bad for him and it's bad for his friends too. I've even caught him looking at his mobile phone. He must turn off his phone before the lesson starts – or I'll have to take it away from him.
- Mr Houseman: OK. I'll talk to him about that.
- Teacher: Thank you. And then there's homework.
- Mr Houseman: Is there a problem with that?
- Teacher: Yes. He must do more homework. It's the only way to improve. And then, when we have tests, he must revise for them. If not, he'll fail the exam.
- Mr Houseman: OK. I can see John's not doing very well. I'll have to talk to him about it. I promise he'll improve from now on.
- Teacher: Thank you very much.

So, tomorrow is the big day. We're going to go out on safari and hopefully show you some wonderful animals in their natural surroundings. This will be a great day out but there are a few important rules to make the day more enjoyable and safer.

First of all, safety. You mustn't leave the vehicle – unless I say it's OK. You may think it's safe but there may be danger that you can't see. So you must listen to me and follow my instructions.

When we see animals, we must talk quietly. Loud noises scare animals away.

You mustn't feed the animals. It's bad for the animals and it's dangerous for you!

Of course, you absolutely mustn't smoke. The bush is dry and cigarettes can cause a fire very quickly.

These are the vital rules. There are a few other pieces of general advice. You don't have to bring a camera with you. We have a photographer and he'll take photos for you. We'll also provide a picnic, so you don't have to bring food or water either. But you must wear sun cream. The sun is very hot in the middle of the day.

Oh yes, and one piece of good news, we're leaving at 10 o'clock, so you don't have to get up early! Sleep well and I'll see you tomorrow.

16.3

- ▶ Do I have to bring my PE kit?
- 1 We mustn't get up late tomorrow. We've got an exam.
- 2 Look at the sign. You mustn't smoke here.
- 3 You needn't explain what happened.
- 4 Ted should read that book.
- 5 You don't have to help me carry the bags. They aren't heavy.
- 6 Should I buy this? It's expensive.
- 7 Jess had to look after her little brother yesterday.
- 8 Jamie has to practise the piano every day.

Revision 4 Units 15–16

R4.1

Charlie: So, Grandpa, were things very different when you were young?

Grandpa: Well, my parents didn't have a car, so we had to walk to school every day. But that was OK because I could talk to my friends. And we didn't have to go home straight after school. We could play football in the street or go to our friends' houses. We didn't have to ask our parents for permission.

Charlie: Did you have much money?

Grandpa: No, we didn't. We could buy sweets sometimes but we couldn't buy music or clothes. In fact, I had to wear my brother's clothes when he'd finished with them.

Charlie: What about school? Was that different?

Grandpa: We got a lot of homework but we couldn't look things up on the internet; it didn't exist. We had to go to the library and find the answers in books. It took a long time. In those days, boys didn't have to do cookery. We had to learn woodwork. So I could make a box but I couldn't cook an egg!

R4.2

Tom: Mum, Rob has just called. He wants to go the cinema tonight. Can I go?

Mum: Have you done your homework yet?

Tom: No, not yet.

Mum: Well, you must finish your homework first.

Tom: OK.

Mum: And can you tidy your room too?

Tom: Do I have to? I haven't got a lot of time.

Mum: Do your homework first. Then, if you've got time, tidy your room. If not, you can do it tomorrow.

Tom: OK. And can I stay in town with Rob after we've seen the film?

Mum: What time does it finish?

Tom: About 8 o'clock.

Mum: No, that's too late. You have to come home straight away.

Tom: OK. Could you collect me from the cinema and bring me home?

Mum: At 8 o'clock? I've got a meeting at school. I can't miss it. It's very important.

Tom: What about Dad?

Mum: He can probably collect you. Phone him at work and ask him.

Tom: OK. I'll do it later.

Mum: No, you must do it now, or you'll forget.

Tom: OK. Could you pass me the phone?

Beth: Where were you yesterday?

Vicky: I had to go to the hospital because I hurt my foot.

Beth: How did you do that?

Vicky: It happened while I was coming home from the sports centre. There are no street lights on Sandy Lane, so it was really dark. There was a hole but I didn't see it. I tripped and fell over.

Beth: Ouch! So what happened next?

Vicky: I couldn't walk or even stand up. There was no one else on the street, so I had to phone my parents.

Beth: Did they take you to the hospital?

Vicky: Yes. When we arrived at the hospital, I had to wait for two hours. That was difficult because my foot was really hurting. Finally, they did an X-ray.

Beth: And what was the result?

Vicky: Although it was very painful, the foot wasn't broken. They put a bandage on it and gave me crutches to walk with.

Beth: How do you feel now?

Vicky: It doesn't hurt too much now, but I can't walk or sit at a desk at the moment. So no school for me!

Beth: That's lucky, isn't it?

- 3 If you don't answer in ten seconds, you get no points and the next player tries to answer.
- 4 If the next player answers correctly, he or she gets one point.
- 5 If you answer five questions correctly, you get two extra points.
- 6 If two players finish with the same score, there is one more question, and the first person to answer correctly is the winner.

Those are the rules. Now on with the show ...

21.2

Amy: Are you doing anything interesting this weekend?

Louise: Maybe. My aunt and uncle and my cousins may be coming this weekend.

Amy: So what will you do if they come?

Louise: I'll play tennis with my cousin, Tanya. My brother will probably go to the cinema with my other cousin, Jason.

Amy: What will your parents do?

Louise: They'll go for a walk in the country with my aunt and uncle.

Amy: That sounds nice.

Louise: But they might not come. They've got a problem with their car and they live fifty miles away.

Amy: So what will you do if they don't come?

Louise: I'll read my book.

Amy: What about your brother?

Louise: He'll play computer games.

Amy: And your parents?

Louise: They'll probably do some gardening.

Amy: I hope they come. It sounds like your weekend will be more interesting, if they do.

21.3

- ▶ If you sell your bike, you'll get a lot of money.
- 1 If they arrive late, we'll miss the film.
- 2 I'll be angry if Emily doesn't wait for me.
- 3 If you don't slow down, we'll crash.
- 4 Ted will look silly if he wears that hat.
- 5 If Jack needs the book, I'll lend it to him.
- 6 If you lose that watch, we won't buy you a new one.
- 7 Lucy won't win the race if she doesn't train harder.
- 8 They won't help you if you talk to them like that.

21.4

Ben: The holidays start on Friday.

Toby: At last! Have you got any plans?

Ben: It really depends on the weather. If the weather's good, then we'll go to the beach.

Toby: That sounds good. And if the weather's bad ...

Ben: Then we'll probably go to London.

Toby: Mmm. That sounds good too. Which would you rather do?

Ben: I don't know. If we go to the beach, then I'll go swimming in the sea. I love that. But the problem is we have to drive a long way. And if we don't leave early in the morning, there'll be traffic jams. I can't stand that.

Toby: So would you prefer to go to London?

Ben: Well, if we go to London, we'll probably see a show – a musical or something like that. That'll be exciting. But we'll only go to London if the weather's bad. And if it rains all day, we'll get wet and cold. That's not much fun.

Toby: Well, I'd love to go to London. So if you don't want to go, let me know and I'll go!

22 Second conditional

22.1

- 1 A: What would you do if you saw someone stealing a book in a shop?
B: If I saw someone stealing a book in a shop, I'd probably tell the shop assistant.
- 2 A: What would you do if your teacher didn't come to your class?
B: If my teacher didn't come to my class, I'd probably do my homework. Then I'd have less homework to do after school.
- 3 A: What would you do if you were in a bathroom and couldn't open the door?
B: If I couldn't open the bathroom door, I'd send a text message to my parents.
- 4 A: What would you do if you accidentally broke a window in your parents' house?
B: If I broke a window in my parents' house, I'd run away and hide!
- 5 A: What would you do if you were at a café and your food was cold?
B: If my food was cold, I'd complain to the waiter.
- 6 A: What would you do if you found a wallet in the street?
B: If I found a wallet in the street, I'd look for a name or address inside it.

22.2

- ▶ If they watch that film, they'll love it.
- 1 If there was a problem with my phone, I'd take it back to the shop.
 - 2 If you clean the car, I'll pay you five pounds.
 - 3 I'll make dinner tonight if you're tired.

25 Position: adjectives and adverbs

25.1

- Claire: I was at Giorgio's last night.
Jenny: Is that the new Italian restaurant? How was the food?
Claire: Not bad. I had a bowl of pasta with a delicious creamy sauce, and an enormous chocolate cake.
Jenny: Sounds nice.
Claire: And I met some interesting new people too – the O'Sullivans. They're a really nice Australian family. The daughter, Katy, is my age. She's lovely. She was wearing a beautiful blue silk dress.
Jenny: What are they doing here?
Claire: Her dad is an architect. He's designing a boring modern office block in London, I think. But they're also restoring an old stone house in the village.
Jenny: I know that. There's a little red sports car outside.
Claire: Yes. That's her mum's car.

25.2

25.3

- Ben: Hi, Jack. How are you?
Jack: Not bad, Ben. I've just finished my maths homework.
Ben: It was quite difficult, wasn't it?
Jack: I always find it difficult! So why are you phoning?
Ben: Oh yeah. Have you ever been to a basketball match, Jack?
Jack: No. I've never done that, but I'd love to.
Ben: Well there's a match on tomorrow. Can you come?
Jack: I definitely want to. The thing is I'm probably going to the cinema with my family.
Ben: They won't mind, will they?
Jack: OK. I'll ask my parents. Anyway, I have to go. Dinner is almost ready.
Ben: OK, Jack. Can you call me back and let me know?
Jack: I'll call you later tonight, Ben.

25.5

- Receptionist: So, madam, I hope you enjoyed your stay.
Linda: Actually, no I didn't. I have to say I was very disappointed.
Receptionist: I'm sorry to hear that. What was the problem?
Linda: First of all, the room wasn't clean enough. No one emptied the bins and yesterday the cleaner didn't come at all.
Receptionist: I'm very sorry about that. I'll talk to the cleaners.
Linda: Then there was the bathroom. It was too small – much too small. There wasn't enough space for two people. And the shower wasn't hot enough; the water was warm but it never got really hot.
Receptionist: I'll talk to the plumber about that.
Linda: That's not all. The bed wasn't comfortable enough. I didn't sleep well for the whole week. And the sheets on the bed were too old. I even found a hole in one of them.
Receptionist: Yes. That's very bad.
Linda: And another thing. It was very hot in the night, so I wanted to open the window. But the window was too high up. I had to stand on a table to reach it.
Receptionist: That must have been annoying.
Linda: And one last thing – the people in the next room were too loud. I could hear their television all night. I couldn't get to sleep.
Receptionist: I'm very sorry you had such a bad experience. I'll call the manager and you can discuss it with her.
Linda: Thank you.

Revision 7 Units 24–25

R7.1

- A: Will the box fit in the car?
B: Hmm. I don't think so. The car's too small.
1 A: Why did you choose the Western Hotel?
B: Because the Western isn't as big as the Classic and it's more modern.
2 A: Have you got a lot of work at the moment?
B: Well, I'm busy enough but not too busy.
3 A: Which one are you going to buy?
B: I'm definitely going to buy the cheapest.
4 A: How old is your son?
B: He's 15, but he isn't as tall as me yet.
5 A: Are you warm enough?
B: Yes, thanks.

R7.2

- A: Hello. Can I help you?
C: Yes, please. I'd like some apples.
A: We've got these red apples.
C: Hmm. They look too big. I prefer the green ones. I'll have four of them.
A: OK. Anything else?
C: How much are the peaches?

- A: 90 cents each.
 C: That's too expensive.
 A: You could have apricots. They're less expensive. They're 60 cents each.
 C: OK. I'll have five of them.
 A: How about some strawberries?
 C: Are they sweet enough?
 A: You can try them.
 C: Thank you. Hmm. Yes, I'll have 400 grammes of these.
 A: OK. Would you like anything else?
 C: Yes, please. Some tomatoes.
 A: We've got lots of different tomatoes. Which would you like?
 C: Which are the cheapest ones?
 A: The large ones over here.
 C: Hmm. They look too old.
 A: What about the small ones over there? They're more expensive. They're 3 Euros a kilo.
 C: Hmm. But they look nicer. I'll have half a kilo of them.
 A: Here you are. Anything else?
 C: No that's enough. This bag's already too heavy. I can't carry any more.

26 Prepositions of time

26.1

- Charlie: Dad, I've got some more details about the football tour to Bristol.
 Dad: When is it happening?
 Charlie: In November.
 Dad: What are the dates?
 Charlie: We go on the 12th and come back on the 14th.
 Dad: And how many matches are you playing?
 Charlie: We've got two matches. The first match is on Tuesday afternoon, against the Dolphin School. The second match is on Wednesday morning against Avon College.
 Dad: So you've got a match on Tuesday afternoon. What are you doing for the rest of Tuesday?
 Charlie: Let's have a look ... in the morning, we're going to look around the city and visit the museum. In the evening, we're going out to have a pizza at the Pizza Shed.
 Dad: So what time do you leave on the Monday?
 Charlie: Well, it says that we leave school at about four o'clock in the afternoon.
 Dad: And what about when you come home? What time will you get back here?
 Charlie: OK. It says that the coach will leave Bristol at lunchtime on Wednesday. So we should get back at about four o'clock in the afternoon. Can you collect me then?
 Dad: So, that's on the 14th of November. Let's have a look in my diary. ... I've got a meeting in the morning on the 14th, but I should be able to leave by 3.30.
 Charlie: Thanks!

28.2

- Max: Have you seen this story in the newspaper?
About the boy who went missing on a school trip.
- David: No, I haven't. What happened?
- Max: Well, his class went to York by train. They visited all the museums and then most children went shopping. But this boy went for a walk by the river.
- David: Did he get lost?
- Max: No. He got on the wrong train by mistake. All the pupils met at the train station, but they were in a hurry and the teacher was checking the pupils very quickly. He saw a boy in a green jacket and thought it was the boy. So they got on the train. In fact, it was a different boy.
- David: So where was the boy?
- Max: He was on the wrong train. It was going to London! The teacher realized his mistake and tried to contact the boy by phone, but his phone wasn't working.
- David: What happened in the end?
- Max: The train inspector phoned the boy's parents and they came and collected him in their car. It was a three-hour journey.
- David: Wow! The teacher probably felt very bad about it.
- Max: In my opinion, it was the boy's fault. He got on the wrong train without waiting for the others.

- Vicky: Hi Carla. Did you go into town yesterday?
- Carla: Yes, I did. I went shopping. I went to the bookshop to get a book for school. I'd just left the bookshop when I met Gemma.
- Vicky: What was she doing?
- Carla: She was going to the park. So I decided to go with her. But on our way there it started to rain.
- Vicky: I know. It rained really hard yesterday, didn't it?
- Carla: Yes, there was a big storm. So instead of going to the park, we went into Milton's.
- Vicky: The department store?
- Carla: Yes. That's right. We decided to stay there until the rain stopped. In the end, we were there from 2.30 to 4 o'clock.
- Vicky: That's a long time. What did you do?
- Carla: We looked at the clothes department on the ground floor and then we went up to the café on the fourth floor. We looked out of the window and watched the rain. When it stopped, we went outside again.

- Vicky: Did you go to the park in the end?
- Carla: We did actually. Amazingly, the sun came out and it was really nice. We left at 6 o'clock, but then I realized I'd left my book in the café at the department store. I'd put it on the table, put my cup on top of it and then forgot about it.
- Vicky: Did you go back?
- Carla: Yes. Someone had found it.
- Vicky: That was lucky.

Frank: Hi, Oscar. How's the holiday?
Oscar: Great. Scotland is really interesting. And the sun is shining. What's it like in England?
Frank: Hmm. It's raining here at the moment. Anyway, when did you arrive?
Oscar: Three days ago. We drove to Edinburgh and spent the night there.
Frank: What did you do in Edinburgh?

Oscar: We visited the castle and walked around the city. It's very beautiful. Then yesterday we drove to see some friends who live in the mountains. During the day, my dad and I took our mountain bikes and went cycling. My mum and my sister didn't come with us. They went for a walk with our friends.

Frank: Did you stay at your friends' house?

Oscar: Yes, and we'll be there tonight too.

Frank: So what are you doing today?

Oscar: Well, I wanted to climb one of the mountains but my dad hurt his knee while we were cycling, so that's not possible now. I think we might go for a picnic today or we might go to a lake and sail. We haven't decided yet.

William: Yes. I'm going to the sports prize evening.

Harry: Have you been before?

William: No, never. I'm really excited.

Harry: Are you going to get a prize?

William: I'm not sure. Mr Simms gives the prizes but he hasn't told anyone who's won them.

Harry: But you won the long jump event on sports day.

William: Yes. But they don't give many prizes because there are a lot of people and there isn't a lot of time.

Harry: So who gets prizes?

William: The people who try the hardest and go to most clubs.

Harry: You go to lots, don't you?

William: If I went to four or five, I'd probably get a prize. But I only go to football, cricket and athletics.

Harry: It must be hard to win a prize, then. So when does the evening start?

William: In two hours. I have to go home and get ready. I'm going to wear a suit and tie.

Harry: Does everyone wear that?

William: Not everyone. But most people want to dress smartly.

Harry: It sounds good. I wish I was invited.

William: Well, Harry, if you play more sport, you might be able to go next year.

Oxford Grammar for Schools is a 7-level series that helps you understand and practise grammar, supporting and extending what you learn in your coursebook.

Understand the grammar

- Look at the 'Can do' statements to find out what you will learn
- See grammar in action: dialogues and examples

Activate your language skills

- Read the grammar in a variety of text types
- Listen to the grammar and build your listening skills
- Write the grammar in 'real-life' writing activities
- Practise the grammar in speaking activities with others

Prepare for exams and check your progress

- Prepare for exams with exam-style tasks
- Test yourself with photocopiable tests
- Recycle grammar topics from previous levels and check what you remember
- Do regular revision activities that practise more than one grammar topic
- Rate your progress with the end-of-unit self-evaluation boxes

Tests by Daniela Clarke

- One test for each unit of the Student's Book
- End-of-level tests
- Exam-style questions

Oxford Grammar for Schools covers the grammar for these exams:
