1 Read the text quickly. Who isn't a character in the Max Remy books?

a Max Remy

b Mr Blue

c Deborah Abela

d Linden

Max Remy is eleven. She's got short brown hair and she likes wearing trousers and trainers. She's adventurous, has a lot of imagination and is sometimes bad-tempered. Max has got a friend called Linden. He's funny, clever and good-looking too. Max and Linden go to school, but they are spies too. They work with Spy Force. Their opponent is Mr Blue, a crook who wants to rule the world.

There are a lot of Max Remy books. They are by the Australian author, Deborah Abela. She talked to Incredible Magazine about the Max Remy books.

INCREDIBLE MAGAZINE:

Deborah, you say writing is the best job in the world. Did you like books when you were a child?

DEBORAH ABELA:

Yes, I loved stories ... comics, cartoons, films, TV ... and books, of course.

IM: Where do you write?

DA: I usually write on my computer in my study. It's a beautiful room with a big window.

Sometimes I have ideas when I go out. Then I write them in a notebook. If I haven't got a notebook, I write them on a serviette or a place mat!

IM: How long does it take you to write a book?

DA: Well, first I think of the ideas. Then I write the first version of the story. That takes me three or four months. Then I rewrite the story two or three times until I'm happy with it.

IM: Who's your favourite character?

DA: I really like Linden. He's my favourite.

IM: And Max?

DA: Here's a secret! I love having adventures and ... Max is really me!

Which concept map is for planning a story?

Which concept map is for planning a party?

Which concept map is about the Earth?

Sometimes you need to remember facts for exams. A concept map is fun to draw. Because it is fun, it can help you remember things!

How to make a concept map

1 Get ready

You need these things:

- a piece of paper
- a pencil
- some crayons or felt tips
- your brain!

2 Write the title

- Think of a title for your concept map and write it in the middle of the page.
- Draw a shape around your title.

What are the titles of the concept maps?

3 Put your ideas on paper

First ...

- Think of a main idea.
- Draw a line and write the main idea at the end of it.
- Draw a shape around the word.

Now ...

- Think of important information connected to the main idea.
- Draw some lines from the shape.
- Write one or two words at the end of each line.

Then ...

- Think of more main ideas and add them to your concept map!

A NEW DINOSAUR IN CHICAGO

SUE, THE TYRANNOSAURUS REX

THIS IS SUE. She's a fossil of a T. Rex skeleton and she's about 66 million years old. Sue is in the Field Museum in Chicago now. The museum bought her on Saturday. They paid $8.4 million. That's a lot of money!

Sue Hendrickson discovered the skeleton on 12th August 1990. She was in a team of fossil hunters in North America. One day their lorry had a problem so they returned to the nearest town. Sue stayed at the camp. She walked to some rocks and she saw some big bones. The team returned to the camp and they started to dig. They discovered a T. Rex skeleton. They were very surprised because nearly all the bones were there. They called the skeleton Sue.

T. Rex lived on earth 65-85 million years ago, many years before humans. They were big and strong and very dangerous. An adult T. Rex was five metres tall - that's as tall as three men! It was twelve metres long - that's as long as a bus! It weighed six tonnes - that's as heavy as two elephants! It could run at 40 kilometres per hour. 'Tyrannosaurus Rex' means 'lizard king'.

1 Do the quiz. Answer Yes or No.

- 1 Did Stone Age people make paintings in houses?
- 2 Are there cave paintings in Africa?
- 3 Could Stone Age people make different colours?
- 4 Did they have green paint?
- 5 Did they use brushes?
- 6 Did they have lamps?
- 7 Did they paint pictures of horses?
- 8 Did they make handprints?

2 Listen, read and check your answers. 1.32

How did Stone Age people paint?

They had red, black, yellow and brown paints. They made their paints by mixing powdered rock and water. They mixed paints together to make different colours. They didn't have brushes. They painted with sticks, feathers and bones. It was dark in the caves. They used lamps made of rock.

3 Look, listen and repeat. 1.33

Stone Age people were artists. They painted pictures on the walls of their caves. People have discovered cave paintings in every continent except Antarctica! This painting is in the Lascaux caves in France. It is about 17,000 years old. There are hundreds of paintings on the walls and the ceilings of the caves.

What did the cave artists paint?

Cavemen painted the animals they could see around them. In Stone Age caves you can see pictures of lots of animals, like bison, deer and horses.

You can sometimes see handprints in Stone Age paintings. This is a handprint from the Lascaux caves. Perhaps it is the handprint of the artist.

Why did Stone Age people paint?

We can't answer this question, but we can make some guesses. Perhaps they painted for their gods. Perhaps they wanted to tell stories with their pictures. What do you think?

Welcome to Northcourt Castle!

This medieval castle is more than 600 years old.
It's a part of British history.

e see the Queen's diamonds

f see a bird of prey

The King and Queen slept here in the Royal Bedroom. It was cold in the castle, so the bed has got curtains!

Knights wore suits of armour. They were very heavy. Go to the Tower and try on a suit of armour for protection. Can you walk? It isn't easy!

People had parties and feasts in the Great Hall. The table is twenty metres long. Fifty people could eat at the table!

We have a tournament every Saturday. Watch knights in armour fight on horses. It's really exciting and very noisy!

There is a moat around the castle, 600 years ago the moat protected the castle from attack. There isn't any water in the moat now. You can walk in it!

Hunting with birds of prey was a sport in medieval times. Falconers train and look after the birds. Come and see these beautiful birds. There is a display every afternoon at 3.30.

Medieval archers used bows and arrows to hunt for food and to protect the castle. Come and try archery. It's great fun for adults and children!

Our restaurant has a special medieval menu. In medieval times they used bread for plates and they ate with their fingers! You can do this too. Come and have lunch!

The Romans used symbols to represent numbers. We don't count with Roman numbers now, but we see them everywhere. We use them on some clocks and watches, on posters, and sometimes on pictures or statues.

The symbols

Here are the symbols that the Romans used:

- I means 1. C means 100.
- V means 5. D means 500.
- X means 10. M means 1000.
- L means 50.

They didn't have a symbol for zero.

How to read Roman numbers

To read a Roman number, add the symbols together. Roman numbers can be very long! Look.

- II □ $1 + 1 = 2$
- VIII □ $5 + 1 + 1 + 1 = 8$
- CCLV □ $100 + 100 + 50 + 5 = 255$
- MMMCCXXV □ $1000 + 1000 + 1000 + 100 + 10 + 10 + 5 = 3125$

Can you read these numbers?

- XXI LXV CCCXXXIII

Be careful! When there is a small number before a big number, you subtract the small number from the big number. Look.

- IV □ $5 - 1 = 4$
- IX □ $10 - 1 = 9$
- XL □ $50 - 10 = 40$
- XC □ $100 - 10 = 90$

Look at this number: XXIX

- XX means 20.
- IX means $10 - 1 = 9$.
- So the number is 29.

Can you read these numbers?

- CXL LIX XCI

Interesting fact!

You can write the number 4 as IIII or IV. Clocks with Roman numbers usually have IIII. Look at this clock. Has it got IV or IIII?

3 Match the Roman numbers to the number words.

- 1 LXXIX a one hundred and eighty
- 2 CCCXL b seventy-eight
- 3 XCIV c ninety-four
- 4 CLXXX d one hundred and ninety
- 5 LXXVIII e seventy-nine
- 6 CXC f three hundred and forty

4 Listen and find the numbers.  1.50

Talk about it!

5 Point to the pictures and talk about the numbers.

X is ten, and I is one.
 Ten plus ten plus ten equals 30.
 Ten minus one equals nine.
 30 plus nine equals 39. So it's 39.

1 Guess the missing words. Then listen to the song and check. 1.51

Make a balancing bird

1 Draw a bird on the card.
Important! The ends of its wings must be lower than its feet.

2 Cut out the bird with the scissors. You can colour it if you want to.

3 Put the bird's feet on your finger. The bird doesn't balance.

4 Make two small balls of modelling clay. They should be the same size. Stick the clay at the end of each wing. Try balancing the bird again.

Make a spinner

1 Copy this template onto your piece of paper. Colour your spinner.

2 Cut along the solid lines. Make the wings with A and B. Fold along the dotted lines.

3 Make the body with C and D. Fold along the dotted lines.

4 Fold the body at E and put a paper clip on it.

5 Try out your spinner!

Human beings are always inventing new things. New inventions change our lives. Read about some of the inventions in this room. Can you imagine life without them?

Before we had light bulbs, people used candles and gas lights. Light bulbs were invented in the 1870s by Joseph Swan and Thomas Edison, in England and the USA.

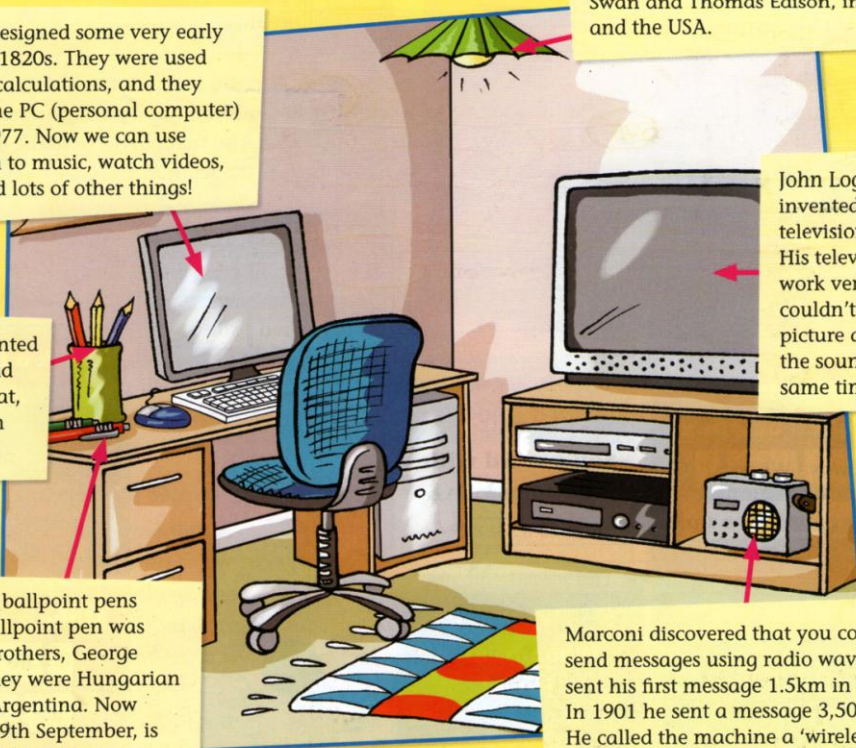

Charles Babbage designed some very early 'computers' in the 1820s. They were used for mathematical calculations, and they were enormous! The PC (personal computer) was invented in 1977. Now we can use computers to listen to music, watch videos, write messages and lots of other things!

John Logie Baird invented the television in 1926. His television didn't work very well. You couldn't see the picture and hear the sound at the same time!

Pencils were invented in 1565 by Conrad Gesner. Before that, people wrote with feathers and ink.

There weren't any ballpoint pens until 1938. The ballpoint pen was invented by two brothers, George and Lazlo Biro. They were Hungarian but they lived in Argentina. Now Lazlo's birthday, 29th September, is 'Inventor's Day' in Argentina.

Marconi discovered that you could send messages using radio waves. He sent his first message 1.5km in 1895. In 1901 he sent a message 3,500km! He called the machine a 'wireless' – but we call it a 'radio' now.

THE STORY

Act I b

Dorothy lives in Kansas in the USA. One day there is a terrible tornado. Dorothy flies through the air to the Land of Oz. She can't go back to Kansas. She meets the Good Witch. The Good Witch gives Dorothy some special shoes. She says the Wizard of Oz can help Dorothy go home. So Dorothy goes to look for the Wizard.

Act II A

Dorothy walks along the Yellow Brick Road and meets some interesting people. First she meets the Scarecrow, who wants a brain. Then she meets the Tin Man, who wants a heart. Finally she meets the Lion, who wants to be brave.

Act III D

Dorothy and her friends arrive at the Wizard's castle. They talk to the wizard, but they can't see his face because he is wearing a mask. They ask him for help. He agrees, but first they must get the Bad Witch's broom and give it to him.

Act IV E

They walk to the Bad Witch's castle. The Bad Witch wants to steal Dorothy's shoes. She takes them and Dorothy is very cross. She throws some water at the witch and the witch disappears. Dorothy and her friends take the broom. They are very happy.

Act V O

They go back to the Wizard's castle. They discover the Wizard's secret: he isn't a wizard, he is an ordinary man! They have more adventures and discover that the Scarecrow is clever, the Tin Man can love and the Lion is brave. Finally Dorothy discovers that her shoes are magic. They help her go home. Her friends wave goodbye.

Musical instruments

1 Look, listen and repeat. 🎧 2.16

2 Listen and read. 🎧 2.17

We play music on musical instruments. They make vibrations and the vibrations make sounds. We divide instruments into families. In each family the vibrations are made in a different way.

String instruments

These instruments all have strings. You use the strings to make sounds. You can play the strings of a violin with a bow, or you can pluck the strings with your fingers. You can make lots of different sounds with a guitar.

Keyboard instruments

Keyboard instruments have got keys. You hit the keys with your fingers. Keyboard instruments make sounds in different ways. A piano has got strings inside it. Small hammers make the strings vibrate. An electronic keyboard uses electrical signals to make sounds.

Wind instruments

You play wind instruments by blowing them. You play a flute by blowing across a hole. You make sounds with a trumpet by making your lips vibrate. A clarinet has got a reed – you make the reed vibrate with your lips.

Percussion instruments

You play percussion instruments by hitting or shaking them. You hit a xylophone with beaters. You hit a drum with drumsticks or with your hands. You can hit a tambourine with your hand or you can shake it.

9.00 am: The street is quiet.

Spencer Street is an ordinary street in Norwich. It was a special day yesterday. They had a street party. Our reporter Nick Jones was there.

9.00 am: The street was quiet. Everyone was at home, getting ready for the party. Some people were making food and drink. Some people were preparing the music and games. Other people were making the decorations.

12.45 am: The street was nearly ready. There were tables and chairs in the middle of the road. The children were painting their faces. They looked great!

1.30 pm: It was time for lunch! The food was on the tables. There were pizzas and pies. There were salads and samosas. There was chocolate mousse and lots of ice cream. I had spinach pizza and strawberry ice cream – delicious!

3.15 pm: It was time to relax. The children were playing games. The egg and spoon race looked fun. Luckily they were using hard-boiled eggs!

5.00 pm: Now it was time for music. There was a band with a guitar, drums and a keyboard. They live in Spencer Street too. They played fantastic music.

7.15 pm: It was nearly the end of the party. There was one more activity. There was a map on the ground. People in Spencer Street come from all over the world. They all put candles on their countries.

Different foods contain different nutrients. We need to eat a mixture of nutrients every day. Here is a meal with lots of different nutrients in it.

We need protein to grow and to keep healthy. There is protein in meat, fish, milk and beans.

We need carbohydrate to give us energy. There are two kinds of carbohydrate: sugar and starch. There is starch in bread, rice, pasta and potatoes. There is some sugar in fruit. There is a lot of sugar in sweets, cakes, biscuits and ice cream. We shouldn't eat a lot of sugar.

We need fat for energy. You find fat in lots of foods – for example, cheese, nuts, meat, biscuits and ice cream. There are different kinds of fat. We shouldn't eat too much saturated fat, like butter. Unsaturated fat, like olive oil, is healthier.

Our bodies need vitamins to function well. We need to eat different kinds of fruit and vegetables because we need different kinds of vitamins. Oranges, kiwis and peppers have lots of vitamin C. Vitamin C helps to protect you from infections.

Our bodies need minerals too. Calcium is an important mineral. It helps to keep our bones and teeth strong. There is calcium in milk and cheese. Salt is a mineral, but be careful – we shouldn't eat too much salt.

We need fibre to keep our digestive system healthy. There is fibre in fruit and vegetables and cereals.

Think about your breakfast. What foods did you eat? What nutrients did they contain?

WILDLIFE FRIENDS

WILDLIFE FRIENDS is an organization that helps British wild animals. We've got seven centres and we work with thousands of animals every year.

- We help endangered animals by protecting their habitats.
- Sometimes animals are injured in accidents. Our vets look after them.
- Sometimes baby animals lose their parents. We look after the orphans in our centres.

ADOPT AN ANIMAL!

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HELP?

It's expensive to look after animals. We need your help. You can adopt one of our animals. We usually have deer, foxes and red squirrels for adoption. We sometimes have badgers and owls too. You give us a donation, and we give your animal a good home here at Wildlife Friends.

THANK YOU, CHO!

Cho visited our hospital on her birthday. She adopted Ziggy. Ziggy is a female badger cub. She's three months old. She's always hungry! She eats worms and insects. She likes plants too. Ziggy hasn't got a mother. With Cho's money we can feed and look after Ziggy for three months.

IN YOUR ADOPTION PACK WE GIVE YOU:

- A certificate of adoption with a photo of your animal
- The story of your animal
- A copy of our magazine
- A Wildlife Friends badge
- A free ticket to the centre
- A fact sheet about your animal

Adopt an animal now! Phone us on 876153 or visit www.wildlifefriends.uk

Food chains

Learn about food chains and food webs

1 Look, listen and repeat.  2.53

2 Listen, read and answer.  2.54

Producers

Plants get energy from the sun. They use this energy to grow and to make food for some animals. We call plants producers because they produce food.

Consumers

Animals get energy from their food. They eat plants or other animals. We call them consumers because they consume food.

Herbivores only eat plants.

Carnivores only eat animals.

Omnivores eat plants and animals.

Are you a herbivore, an omnivore or a carnivore?

Food chains

These are food chains. They show what animals eat. A deer eats grass, and then a lion eats the deer. The arrows show how energy moves from one living thing to another. The grass gives energy to the deer, and then the deer gives energy to the lion.

All food chains start with a producer. What are the producers in these food chains?

Decomposers

Flies, worms and ants eat dead plants and animals. They are called decomposers. They can eat everything in the food chain. Some animals eat decomposers too.

Food webs

We can join food chains together to make a food web. The food web on the next page shows some food chains in a wood.

1 Read the text quickly. Where was Ellen MacArthur on these dates?

b Christmas Day

c 7th February

A ROUND-THE-WORLD RECORD!

In 2005 Ellen MacArthur broke the world record for sailing alone around the world. She sailed 27,354 miles in less than 72 days. In fact it was 71 days, 14 hours, 18 minutes and 33 seconds! She started her journey in France on 29th November 2004. You can see her route on the map.

Ellen's boat was called B&Q. It was 23 metres long and it could go at more than 60 km per hour. Ellen worked, ate and slept in a tiny cabin on the boat. It wasn't very comfortable. Sometimes she had to climb up the mast and mend the sails. This usually took five minutes, but in bad weather it sometimes took an hour and a half!

She was in the Southern Ocean on Christmas day. She had some presents, but she couldn't open them because the weather was terrible. There were strong winds and enormous waves. In January she was in the South Atlantic. She had to watch carefully all day and all night - she didn't want to hit an iceberg! One day she sailed over the top of a whale. She was scared because whales can overturn boats.

She arrived in England on 7th February 2005. There was a huge crowd waiting for her. She was very tired, but very happy too.

The Beaufort scale

Learn to use the Beaufort scale to estimate wind speed

1 Look, listen and repeat. 3.25

2 Listen, read and answer. 3.26

When air moves we call it wind. We can't see the wind, but we can feel it. We can see the effects of the wind. It moves things like trees and smoke. The wind can be very useful. For example, it moves wind turbines, which make electricity. Windsurfers and sailors need the wind too.

Look out of the window. Is the wind moving anything today?

The wind blows at different speeds. We measure wind speed in kilometres per hour. You can use the Beaufort scale to estimate wind speed. There are twelve force numbers on the Beaufort Scale. Force 0 means there is no wind. Force 12 means the wind is very strong. Strong winds can be dangerous. This table describes the effects of the wind for each force number.

Force number	Type of wind	Wind speed (km/h)	Description	Picture
0	no wind	0	Smoke goes straight up.
1		1-5	You can feel the wind on your face. Smoke blows sideways.
2	breeze	6-12	Leaves move a little. They make a noise.
3		13-19	Leaves and twigs move.
4		20-29	Small branches move. Papers and leaves blow around in the wind.
5	strong wind	30-39	Small trees move. Flags fly.
6		40-50	Big branches move. It is difficult to use an umbrella.
7		51-62	Big trees move. It is difficult to walk.
8		63-75	It is nearly impossible to walk. Twigs break off trees.
9		76-87	Branches fall off trees. Tiles blow off roofs.
10	storm	88-102	Trees fall over.
11		103-117	Roofs fly off houses.
12		118 +	Houses are destroyed.

3 Answer the questions. Use the table.

1 It's very windy. I can walk but it isn't easy. How strong is the wind?

2 Twigs are moving, but small branches aren't moving. How strong is the wind?

3 The flags are flying well, but it's easy to use my umbrella. How strong is the wind?

4 I can feel the wind on my face and leaves are moving. Twigs aren't moving. How strong is the wind?

5 The wind is very strong. Branches are falling off the trees, but the trees aren't falling over. How strong is the wind?

4 Listen and say which picture.  3.27

5 Talk about the pictures.

2 Play the game.

How to Play

- Play in pairs.
- You need six paper counters each.
- Player 1: Write 0 on your counters.

- Player 2: Write X on your counters.
- Answer a question and put a counter on the board. The first player to make a line of three is the winner.

Say a word with this sound: /eɪ/

What sports do the children do in the story?

Make a sentence:

Thanksgiving

1 Read and find the pictures.

Fact file:

- 102 Pilgrims arrived in America on 11th December, 1620, on a ship called the Mayflower.
- The first winter in America was very cold. Life was very difficult for the Pilgrims. After the first winter, lots of the Pilgrims were dead.
- The Native Americans helped the Pilgrims. They showed them what to plant and what animals to hunt.
- The harvest in 1621 was very good. They had pumpkins and corn and they collected fruit.
- The Pilgrims had a big dinner to thank God for the food. They invited the Native Americans to the dinner.
- On the fourth Thursday of every November North Americans celebrate Thanksgiving. They have a big dinner. Some of the food the Pilgrims ate at the first Thanksgiving is now the traditional food for this festival.

2 Now read again and answer the questions.

- How many Pilgrims were alive after the first winter?
- What was the first winter like?
- Who helped the Pilgrims?
- When is Thanksgiving now?
- Who has Thanksgiving dinner now?

3 Look, listen and repeat. 3.31

4 Listen. Which food is not mentioned? 3.32

Christmas

Every year we celebrate Christmas on 25th December. Christmas is celebrated in many countries. Do you know how people in different countries celebrate Christmas? Each country has different stories and traditions for this special day.

1 Read and find the pictures.

The Netherlands

In The Netherlands, Santa is called Sinterklaas. He lives in Spain. He has a red book. He writes the names of all the children in the book and he writes if they are good or bad. Then he sails in a boat from Spain. When he arrives in the Netherlands, he rides a horse and he visits the houses. The children put food in their shoes. The food is for Sinterklaas's horse. Sinterklaas fills their shoes with sweets and nuts. But he puts coal in the shoes of bad children!

Sweden

In Sweden, Tomte brings the presents. He lives in the forest and he wears a tall red hat. He's very small – he's only about one metre tall. He rides in a sleigh pulled by a goat, and he often travels with a cat. He comes through the floor into people's houses. On his back he carries a sack of presents for the family. He always says, 'Are there any good children here?' Children always answer, 'Yes!'

2 Listen to the song. Then sing. 3.33

Santa's getting ready,
He's making lots of toys,
For all the good girls
And all the good boys!

Santa's bringing toys
All around the world,
For all the good boys
And all the good girls!

Chinese New Year

1 Read the text quickly. Which things are important in Chinese New Year celebrations?

new moon

Chinese New Year is an important festival for people in China and for Chinese people all around the world.

The New Year always starts when there is a new moon, between 21st January and 21st February. Children usually have four days' holiday for the New Year celebrations.

full moon

The New Year celebrations end with the Lantern Festival, when there is a full moon. It is 15 days after New Year's Day. People decorate the streets with beautiful lanterns. Some of the lanterns look like animals. There is a big parade in the evening.

On the day before New Year's Day, people clean their houses in preparation for the New Year. Red is a lucky colour. They write poems on red paper and decorate their houses with them. They often wear red clothes too. They cook special food and have a big dinner with their family.

Chicken is a traditional dish, and mandarin oranges are a lucky fruit. At midnight, they often have fireworks. On New Year's Day, they visit their friends and family. Older people give children money in little red envelopes with gold writing on them.

Sometimes there is a Dragon Dance at the Lantern Festival. People do a special dance underneath a very long dragon. Some dragons are more than 30 metres long! The dancers make the dragon jump and move its head. It is very exciting!

2 Read the text again and answer the questions.

- 1 Is Chinese New Year always on the same day?
- 2 How many days' holiday do children have?
- 3 When do people clean their houses?
- 4 What colour is lucky?
- 5 When do people have a special family dinner?
- 6 When do they visit friends and family?
- 7 Who gives the children money?
- 8 When is the Lantern Festival?
- 9 What time of day is the parade?
- 10 Who makes the dragon move in the Dragon Dance?

1 Read quickly and match the photos to the children. Then listen and read.  3.35

There are more than 28 million Scouts in 216 countries and territories around the world. Scouts do lots of different activities. They learn new skills and new sports and they sometimes do work in the community. They can get badges for some activities. They put the badges on their uniforms.

Hi, I'm Ben. I'm a British Scout. I got this badge for camping skills. I went camping for two weeks, and I learned to do lots of things. I learned how to put up a tent, and I learned how to make a fire. We cooked our food on the fire. On the last day I made breakfast for six people. We had eggs and mushrooms and toast. It was hard work, but it was fun!

My name's Harry. I'm from Australia. This is a citizenship badge. I had to do lots of different things to get this badge. My favourite thing was working for the community. My town is next to the sea, and there's a big beach. The beach is beautiful, but this summer there was lots of rubbish. The rubbish is dirty and dangerous. My group went to the beach every day for a week. We cleared up the rubbish, and now it looks great!

Hi, I'm Anya. I'm from Poland. I got my badge for sailing! I learned how to sail a boat in a lake. Sailing can be dangerous so I learned how to be safe. I learned what to do when the boat turned over. I learned how to change direction. I learned how to stop the boat. It took me four months to get my badge.

2 Answer the questions. Use the texts to help you.

- 1 How many Scouts are there in the world?
- 2 Where do Scouts put their badges?
- 3 How long did Ben go camping for?
- 4 How did Ben and his friends cook their food?
- 5 How long did it take Harry and his friends to clean the beach?
- 6 Where did Anya learn to sail?
- 7 How long did it take Anya to get her badge?

3 Listen and find the badges.  3.36

History all around us

1 Read quickly and match the photos to the children. Then listen and read.  3.37

History books often tell us about kings and battles and the history of the country. But everything has a history. Buildings, people, songs and stories all have histories. They can tell us about the past. History is about people, how they lived and what happened in their lives. These children are interested in their local history.

My name's Rebecca. I live in England. My house is 400 years old. It's called the Pest House. Hundreds of years ago there was a plague. 'Pest' is an old word for plague. Sick people came to the Pest House because there wasn't a hospital in the village. When people had the plague they usually died, because there weren't any good medicines.

My name's Jimmy. I'm from Ireland. In our house we have a very old clock. It is 200 years old. In the bottom of the clock I found a secret place. There was a letter in it. It was a letter from my great-great-grandfather. In the letter he asked my great-great-grandmother to marry him! A man on a horse brought the letter. In the letter he told her to send her answer with the man. In those days people didn't have cars. They used horses to send letters.

My name's Jan. I'm from America. My dad was cleaning the attic in our house. He found an old chest made of wood. It had the date 1810 on the side. I looked on the internet for information. It was a sugar chest! In 1810 sugar was very expensive. It cost more to buy a small bag of sugar than a big piece of land! So people had sugar chests and they locked their sugar inside. Now sugar is very cheap to buy.

2 Find these words in the text.

3 Answer the questions. Use the texts to help you.

- 1 Why did sick people go to the Pest House?
- 2 Why did people often die when they were ill?
- 3 What did Jimmy find in the clock?
- 4 How did people send letters when there weren't any cars?
- 5 What did people put in the chest?
- 6 Why did people lock up the chest?

Talking point: How was life different for your grandparents?

Endangered animals

1 Guess the answers to these questions. Then listen, read and check.  3.38 a Which things are a problem for hedgehogs?

b Which things are a problem for turtles?

tourists

cars

gardens with concrete

jewellery

My name's Ross. I live in Scotland. Hedgehogs are an endangered species in my country. There aren't enough places for hedgehogs to live, because there is a lot of concrete in gardens now. Last summer I saw a hedgehog in my garden. I put some food and milk on saucers, and the hedgehog ate the food. Now I feed it every night. Hedgehogs need somewhere safe to sleep for the winter. In the autumn I put a pile of leaves and sticks in the corner of the garden. This was a perfect place for the hedgehog to hibernate!

Cars are very dangerous for hedgehogs. We need to drive carefully. There is a hedgehog rescue centre in my town. If you find an injured hedgehog, you can take it to the centre and the vets will look after it.

My name's Arif, and I live in Malaysia. Every year thousands of Hawksbill turtles lay their eggs on our beaches. But the turtles are in danger. They can't lay eggs on the beaches because there are too many tourists. People eat the eggs. Local fishermen also catch a lot of turtles in their nets. And people like to make jewellery with the turtle shells. The turtles have lots of problems!

But now there are laws to protect the beaches and make them safe for the turtles. Tourists can watch the turtles but they can't go on the beaches. Fishermen can't fish near the beaches. It is important to protect the turtles. If we don't protect them, they will disappear forever.

2 Write true or false. Use the texts to help you.

- 1 Hedgehogs are in danger in Scotland.
- 2 Hedgehogs don't like milk.
- 3 Hedgehogs hibernate in the winter.
- 4 People eat turtle eggs in Malaysia.
- 5 Fishermen are a problem for turtles.
- 6 Tourists can't watch the turtles.

3 Listen and find the photos.  3.39
